

LWETB provides a range of courses to assist in the upskilling/ reskilling of people in employment, funded under a government initiative Skills to Advance (STA).

Basic skills training is available through our Skills for Work (SFW) programme. This includes literacy, IT skills and English language (ESOL).

All courses are highly subsidised (often completely free of charge) and are available online and/ or in-centre with a combination of taught and self-directed programmes, designed to fit around busy work schedules
